Abstract. This is my abstract.

1 Introduction

This is my introduction. ?] wrote a paper with hints on how to write good software engineering research papers. By the way, this was an example for using the natbib command \citet{}.

Section ?? presents everything one must know. The conclusions follow in Section **??.

2 Another Section

AspectJ can be used to weave cross-cutting concerns into Java programs [?]. By the way, this was an example for using the natbib command \citep{}.

We will now demonstrate how to use subfigures (see Figure ??). Figure ?? shows a circle. A star is displayed in Figure **??.

3 Conclusions

These are my conclusions.

(a) This is a circle. (b) This is a star.
